The Pittsburgh Daily Commercial.

VOL. 1.—NO. 32. PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 13, 1863. PRICE THREE CENTS.

The Daily Commercial.

There are twenty-seven papers in Missouri in favor of immediate emancipation.

CULPEPPER and its vicinity are said to be literally swarming with contrabands.

GAMBLING and harlotry are said to thrive apace in Washington now.

A NEW YORK paper urges the President to call for 300,000 six months' volunteers, and finish up the war at once.

The Bucks County (Pa.) Intelligencer says GEORGE M. DALLAS goes for Governor CURTIN.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—The 16th army corps is on the way to reinforce General ROSECRANS, the Memphis journals say.

PETER SMITH, while transacting business yesterday at the United States Treasurer's office, Boston, was robbed by some adroit thief of nearly $24,000.

LARGE numbers of exchanged men are being sent to their regiments daily from Camp Chase. The authorities are quite active in the matter:

Telegraphic communication is to be established between Boston and Fort Warren. Part of the cable has already been laid in the harbor.

DEATH OF AN EMINENT MUSICIAN.—HERMAN A. WOLLENHAUPT, the eminent pianist and composer, died suddenly in New York, last week.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN denies emphatically that he has received any peace overtures from the rebels, as mentioned in a New York journal of Friday last.

GOV. YATES, of Illinois, has appointed the last Thursday of November next as a Day of Thanksgiving. This is the day recommended by the President.

IT is now ascertained that out of the two hundred and fifty Mexican notables who are represented as having voted unanimously for an empire there were actually one hundred and ten "absentations."

THE PRESIDENT.—The President still remains at the Soldiers' Home with his family. They are not expected back to the President's House before the first of November.

THE PRUSSIANS, having had a great Statistical Congress, have followed it up with a general Dog Show. It is now in full blast, but we have not learned that any American representatives, as usual, were sent to it.

THE coal dealers of Boston have increased the price to eleven dollars a ton, owing to the advance at the mines and the high price of freight. There is only a moderate supply in the hands of dealers. The price by Christmas now bids fair to be twelve dollars.

THE Chicago Tribune says that the late severe frosts have demonstrated that the Chinese sugar-cane is much hardier than Indian corn, and may work something of a revolution by the substitution of one crop for the other by farmers.

SLAVEOWNERS near Culpepper are sending their cattle into the Union lines, telling them they have nothing to feed them upon this Winter. When the loyal North has Wintered them, these precious owners will be after them as runaways.

THE execution of private BROWLEY, of the 122d New York volunteers, which was to have taken place in the army of the Potomac, was suspended by order of the President, providing BROWLEY should agree to make up the time he was absent from his regiment by desertion.

THE Boston Traveller says that Brig. Gen. SHERMAN, who lost a leg at the siege of Port Hudson, has nearly recovered. He is still at Newport, and is able to hobble about the streets by the use of crutches. He will soon procure an artificial leg, and retnrn to duty.

Capt. D. G. MAY, of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, was killed in the recent battle at Chickamauga, while gallantly fighting for his country. Capt. M. was a native of Cumberland county. He raised his company in that vicinity.

THE LONDON News does not think much of the plan of defence of the rebels, placing their women, children and prisoners in the centres of their systems of defensive works, and then appealing to the humanity of the besiegers.

ONE of the fifteen historic shells recently thrown into Charleston city by General GILMORE, shivered the statue erected some years since in front of the Court House of the doomed municipality, in commemoration of the late JOHN C. CALHOUN.

INFORMATION was received in Washington that some thirteen thousand Union soldiers, prisoners, at Richmond, had been exchanged by the rebels and were on their way to, or were at, City Point, on James River, to obtain transportation home.

CALIFORNIANS WATCHING THE EMPEROR.—The Californians are watching the progress of French intervention in Mexico with great interest, and California papers say a war with France would bring down from fifty thousand to sixty thousand miners, ready to dispute with that country the possession of the Mexican mines. The Californians think that if the Mexican mines need developement they are just the boys to do it, and Frenchmen will not carry off the prize without a struggle.

GENERAL BANKS is rapidly recovering the territory of Louisiana. Navigation on the Bayou Teche has been re-opened, and the army, at last accounts, was fifty miles from Brashear City, pushing into the interior. So far, they have met no resistance, or an enemy. The victory which the rebels claim DICK TAYLOR achieved over General WEITSELL'S command, is, as reported, a hoax. The rebels will have to abate that pretension. DICK TAYLOR, or whoever commands the rebel force, does not seem to be in good stomach for a decisive battle.

GROWING COTTON ABROAD.—The experment of cotton-growing abroad appears to have proved a failure. Menaced with the extinction of the American cotton trade, Europeans have put forth their utmost exertions to fill the hiatus from other sources of supply, and it is only within a very recent date that positive conclusions have been arrived at in regard to the productive capacities of other parts of the world. The one great fact which must now be regarded as definitely settled, after protracted investigation and thorough experiments, is, that the United States are destined in future years, as heretofore, only in a more arbitrary sense, to rule in the cotton markets of Europe, as holding the pre-eminence, in comparison with any rival that can be brought into the field.

THEY have got a splendid hearse in New Haven at a cost of $1,400. Can the poor ride in it? or are the charges too high?

A NEW YORK correspondent of a London journal, in a recent letter, takes in hand the rebel aristocracy and ignorant white trash of South Carolina, in the following style:

"The part of the population which is familiar either with the usages of good society, or even of civilized life, does not exceed twenty families, who owe their culture and refinement to the ability to visit the North every year; the rest are semi-barbarians, the like of whom can perhaps now only be found in the remoter parts of Russia or of Asiatic Georgia, and who would be almost as great a curiosity to a New England farmer as a Zulu Caffre or a Maori to an English parish clerk."

PRIZE CLAIMS.—It was wise that Congress, at its last session, passed a law prohibiting speculators from buying up the prize-claims of sailors. It is said that a single speculator of this kind has in his hands half a million of dollars worth of prize-claims, which he probably obtained of sailors for fifty thousand. Under the present law he cannot obtain a dollar of the department, and should not. A heavy lobby interest is growing up to secure the repeal of the law. As it now is, the sailor alone obtains the money due him, and no one can cheat him out of it in advance.

A PROCESSION of about three hundred colored Odd Fellows, ending with appropriate oratorical exercises and festivities, is among the latest novelties in Washington since the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. Delegates were present from New York, Pennsylvania, Boston, Alexandria, Baltimore and Canada. There were two bands of colored musicians with a profuse display of regalias, banners, &c., with appropriate emblems and several National flags. The dignitaries of the Order rode in carriages. The procession was followed by a large crowd of colored spectators, while others accompanied it in carriages of various kinds and on horse back.

SEAMEN WANTED.—The Navy Department is still in great want of seamen. It is feared that some of the new war vessels will have to lie idle for a time for want of men. The army offers high bounties and gets even the fishermen on the New England sea coast. The prize money of most of the seamen in Government service amounts to a very large bounty, but it comes too late to enlist the sympathies of Jack. He wants ready money. Congress will be compelled to offer a bounty of two or three hundred dollars in advance for good seamen, and then there will be no trouble. The prize-money of some seamen has already amounted to $2,000. The judgments of a single day at Key West recently amounted to over $800,000.

THE London Examiner, which has been anything but friendly to our cause, thus remarks on the plan of Jeff. Davis to raise 500,000 negro troops:—"To hold out the prospect of rewards to such a force is an absurdity worthy of the imagination of RABELAIS or SWIFT. 'You shall have freedom and fifty acres at the end of the war if you serve faithfully,' are the conditions proposed. 'We will take them at once,' would be the reply of half a million, 'and not wait to run the chance of being shot in the meanwhile.' The proposal is monstrous and impracticable, but it has important significance, as indicating the extreme military wants of the Confederacy, and the wild expedients at which it snatches, and which it will have to abandon or ruefully repent."

AT a monthly meeting of the London Association of Firemen Engineers a method of preventing the explosion of steam boilers and railway collisions, invented by a French engineer, AUGUSTE ACHARD, was favorably considered. The invention is called the Electrical Embroyage, and the following is a description of it for railway purposes. It is an electric-magnetic apparatus, by means of which any engine-driver can, with an electrical insulator in the shape of a small door-latch, tighten or slacken all the breaks of a train at once, and in less time than it now takes to sound the alarm whistle. This is effected by cutting off the voltaic current, which goes the whole length of the train, and which immediately releases the brakes and allows them to act upon the wheels and stop the train. A train could thus be stopped at four or five hundred yards. In the event of couplings breaking, the partial running off the line of trains, fire, etc., the electric wires become disconnected or broken, and the breaks instantly act automically and stop the train. The apparatus also contains an alarm bell, placed within the reach of every functionary on the train, besides which the travelers themselves, in case of imminent danger, can produce that energetic warning.

From the Army of the Potomac.

REBELS ABANDONING THE RAPIDAN.

Gone to Gordonsville or Richmond!

Lee's Army Gone to Reinforce Bragg or Beauregard.

WASHINGTON, October 11.—Intelligence of an authentic character did not reach Washington till last night that the rebels had abandoned the line of the Rapidan, and retreated in a Southward direction. On the fact being known at Gen. Meade's headquarters yesterday morning, Gen. Buford's cavalry were sent across the Rapidan, and found that the enemy's evacuation of the South bank had been complete.

On proceeding inland they came upon a portion of Stuart's cavalry, evidently covering the retreat of the rebel infantry. Considerable skirmishing ensued, but it did not result in our ascertaining whether the enemy had fallen back on Gordonville, or whether it was attempting some flank movement to get between General Meade's army and Washington, in a similar manner to Stonewall Jackson's movement on Pope, over the same ground.

The prevailing impression seems to be that the rebels have gone to Gordonsville and Richmond, where sufficient garrisons may be left, and the remainder of Lee's army sent to Bragg and Beauregard. If, on the contrary, the enemy are attempting a flank movement, our forces are fully prepared for it.

Col. Cornie, Commissary at Gen. Meade's headquarters, has come up to-night and reports the rebel evacuation ot the line of the Rapidan to be most complete, and has been very rapidly made.

A Washington special to the Times, dated 11th, says:

As some fears have been produced for General Rosecrans' safety, by the published statement that no reinforcements had reached him up to the 8th inst., it may be said that advices from Chattanooga are satisfactory in that respect. He is not only stronger in the center, but his flanks are now well protected by fresh troops.

Rumors again fly thick and fast regarding the retrograde movements of General Lee's army, and the advance of Meade's. Of the first there is nothing definitely known, and of the last nothing definite can be said.

Gold is accumulating in the Treasury, and will be kept there until specie payment is resumed, except at recurring periods of the interest on the public debt.

Deserters from Lee's army report only two divisions of Longstreet's corps was sent to Bragg. Pickett's division which was so badly used up at Gettysburg is being left behind. Some of A. P. Hill's were sent. One division of Covell's corps, first sent to Charleston and subsequently to Bragg, thus leaving in front of the army of the Potomac about 40,000 men, or two corps. The commanding General's headquarters were at Orange Courthouse, on Friday, but Lee has lately spent a large portion of his time at Richmond.

A special to the Tribune, dated Washington, Oct. 11., says that the reply of the President to addresses of the Missouri and Kansas delegetion, is again postponed. The President having received a communication from a member of the cabinet, whose sympathy with the wishes of the delegation is well known, has reserved his decision a few days longer and withdrawn the document which was to have been delivered to Mr. Drake, yesterday, from the hands of the copyist. Mr. Drake, the last remaining member of the Missouri delegation, left Washington last night.

From Charleston.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 10.—The steamer Circassian from Pensacola, Key West and Charleston has arrived here. She brings reports that there was to be a combined army and naval attack on Charleston on the 11th.

Yellow fever is very prevalent at Pensacola.

THE Boston papers of Monday announce the arrival there of the first fruit of the season from Malaga.

THE largest effective gun in the British service has a calibre of eight inches diameter—a 68-pounder.

THE hotels in Philadelphia, like those in New York, are crowded, and hardly a house to let in the city.

THE island of Monte Christo has been made a penal settlement by the Italian Government.

A SON of the Emerald Isle said, a few days since, Judge WOODWARD "put his foot in it" when he tried to put niggers and foreigners upon an equal foot-ing.

A GOOD PRODUCT.—At the Boston Theater, on Saturday evening last, CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN as Lady Macbeth, and PROCTOR as Macbeth, produced $2,000 to the Sanitary Commission.

A GORGEOUSLY furnished drinking saloon in an illuminated advertisement of the railroad hell. Fare as low and time quicker than by any other route. Tickets ten cents.

THE idea of making gaslight from water by decomposing it is not abandoned. Mr. G. A. Reyworth proposes to do it by electricity, and to set his decomposing machinery at work by water-revolving coils at the extremities of dry magnets.

IT is the expressed opinion of many Englishmen of note and influence that the cause of the South has become so utterly desperate that the recognition of the Confederates as belligerents must shortly be withdrawn from them by a royal proclamation.

WARNING TO VOTERS.—Examine well, before voting that your ticket is right. See that it is a genuine CURTIN and AGNEW ticket, and that the names are printed properly; for the Copperheads have been actually employed in printing and circulating tickets with both both CURTIN and AGNEW's names mis-spelled.

PENNSYLVANIANS! CITIZENS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY! Let this day mark your fidelity to the Union! Let this day attest your devotion to the National Confederacy; and by your votes for CURTIN and AGNEW sustain the general Administration in their efforts to put down the rebellion, which WOODWARD says can never be conquered, and which is the true feeling of his heart.

FREEMEN, RALLY ROUND THE FLAG.—Remember your beautiful, time-honored flag is in danger of being stricken down and trailed in the dust by the copperheads of this State. Rally to its rescue! Let not the foe glory over its destruction. WOODWARD would surrender it, with your entire country, to the slave power of the South, whilst our noble CURTIN will uphold it till the last spark of life expires.

AMONG the passengers on board the steamer Sahel, which was recently lost on the coast of Catalonia, were six Sisters of Charity. When assistance came to the vessel they were requested to go in the first boat, but with an admirable spirit of abnegation and Christian charity, they refused, saying, "First save the other women, children, and every one else; we shall be the last to quit the vessel."

SPURIOUS TICKETS.—It is rumored that tickets are ready for distribution in certain localities, in which the name "ANDREW CURTIN" is found instead of "ANDREW G. CURTIN." Of course every such ticket that goes into the ballot-box to-day is a vote lost to the Union cause, for it cannot be counted in the result. Therefore, examine your tickets carefully, and see that they are all right. Watch this as well as all other tricks of the Ophidians.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that this is the day when the freemen of Pennsylvania are called upon to pronounce, through the ballot box, whether WOODWARD and LOWRIE shall be elected, and the good people of this Commonwealth become slaves to JEFF. DAVIS; or, whether CURTIN and AGNEW shall be elected, and virtue, liberty and independence prevail, and the good old flag still continue to wave, o'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

THE EFFECT OF TO-DAY'S VOTE.—The result of to-day's election will have a controlling influence on the future. If favorable to the Union party, the rebellion will suffer a disastrous defeat—its sympathisers will he routed so effectually, as never to be able to rally again. The copperheads will be consigned to the tomb of oblivion, and our glorious Republic will once more have an assured perpetuity. All the patriots will unite in so dispersing of their ballots as to secure this happy result.

NO DODGING.—It won't do for any Union man to decline a vote, on some silly ground of dissatisfaction with regard to a part of our ticket. Vote for the good cause—shut your eyes as to the exceptionable candidate. None of us are perfect—no not one. There never was a ticket whose candidates were not assailable on some ground, and yet what consistent friend of a good cause, would jeopard it by declining to sustain that ticket pledged to its support.

Come on Union men, no dodging—support your country, and let personal feelings go to the winds.

Vote! Vote!! Vote!!!

To-day is the election; can it be that any loyal man will so far forget himself as not to turn out and vote? It cannot be. No man could be loyal and yet so careless of what befalls his country as to stay away from the polls to-day. The fate of the country depends more on this election than on any other thing. Hitherto Pennsylvania and Ohio have been heart and soul on the side of the Union; they have poured out their blood and treasure like water to maintain its integrity. The copperheads have entered into a firm resolve that this shall no longer be so; that to-day they shall abandon the Union and go over to the rebellion. They have laid their plans to effect that result, and they will struggle to carry them out with a recklessness, a villainy, a desperation that will know no bounds. They know that this is their last chance; that if they fail to-day they fail forever; and they will exert their whole strength and energies to succeed. No effort will be so desperate that they will not make use of it; no fraud so infamous that they will not resort to it; no villainy so black that they will not descend to it rather than fail. Will not the loyal voters meet them at the polls with a resolve equally firm, a determination equally stubborn, an energy equally untiring? Let every loyal man remember that the result may depend on a single vote; that that vote may be his; and in view thereof let him do his duty, and his whole duty. Let him not only vote himself, but take care that every one of his loyal neighbors does the same.

A Calculation.

Allegheny	6,500
Armstrong	300
Beaver	900
Butler	600
Somerset	1,200
Washington	200
Total	9,700

The Post intimates that CURTIN cannot get one-half of the above in these six counties. Pray do not be too much surprised, if Allegheny county alone gives the figures you say the six counties cannot give.

We think very likely the five counties named will give WOODWARD majorities beyond what is set down for them, but nothing like what is claimed for them. We have revised the estimates of the Tribune in all the counties named, and while we would change the details in some material aspects, the result of the whole is a fair calculation. It is too late now to influence results by such calculations. It requires very little political shrewdness to understand that GEORGE W. WOODWARD will be beaten—badly beaten, on to-morrow. The majority against him cannot fall below 15,000 and may reach 35,000.

A Day to Your Country.

Our country has the right to require us, if necessary, to give our last dollar to protect it; aye, even our lives in its defense. Those of us who have remained at home, have not had to encounter dangers in the tented field, and the least that can be expected of us is to devote this day to our country. Conceal it as you may, the election of WOODWARD will be hailed as a triumph at Richmond and in the armies of LEE and BEAUREGARD. It would cause despondency in the armies of MEADE, GILMORE and ROSECRANS, and shouts of triumph along the rebel lines. Such considerations should arouse every heart and nerve every arm. One united and earnest struggle and the day is ours—ours now and ours for all time. The Copperheads have staked everything on the present result. Their open and notorious sympathies with Southern traitors; their smiles when the Union army encounters defeat; their sadness when victory crowns our arms, have all been noticed by keen eyes. If now defeated—badly defeated as they ought to be, there remains for them no bright future. We not only want WOODWARD and VALLANDIGHAM defeated, but defeated by such a vote that will sink them in that grave which knows no resurrection.

An Appeal to Democracy.

You always loved your country—you fought to achieve an independence in '76; you fought to drive back her insolent assailants in the war of 1812; you have been fighting to reunite our disturbed country in this dire rebellion.

Now, we have to-day a contest big with destiny to us all—a day involving its future existence—a day that may decide whether Democracy shall any longer exist, or whether a blighting despotism shall extinguish every trace of freedom.

Can you not do something to keep up up your party as well as your country from destruction? Yes. Vote against the Copperheads—help us to destroy them, or they will, if triumphant, lay the axe to the root of the tree of liberty, and by its overthrow plunge our common country into anarchy and dire calamity.

Recollect, the rebels are deeply interested in our election; they most ardently desire the success of the Copperheads, and will deem their triumph conclusive as to their own ultimate success.

Democrats desiring the suppression of the rebellion, will, we trust and believe, vote against its sympathisers.

Desperation of Copperheads.

WE have just seen a gentleman—one of our most respectable and reliable citizens—who was at a VALLANDIGHAM Convention at Dayton, Ohio, two or three days since. His representation of the conduct of these Ohio Copperheads almost exceeds belief. They came in conflict with a body of soldiers—the cars containing whom had undoubtedly been thrown off the track by these miscreants. Their whole conduct would have been disgraceful to the worst corps in JEFF. DAVIS' army.

What can we think of such conduct, and that, too, endorsed by the WOODWARD platform, and by their cheering for VALLANDIGHAM at every Copperhead meeting. Unless WOODWARD and VALLANDIGHAM are defeated to-day, disorder, rebellion and treason are fairly inaugurated. Under the reign of misrule and treason our property would not be worth 50 per cent of its present prices.

MOTHERS, WIVES AND DAUGHTERS OF PENNSYLVANIANS, imitate the women of the days of the Revolution, and encourage your husbands, sons and brothers to emulate, this day, the action of the patriots of '76, and strike, by their votes for CURTIN and AGNEW, and for the perpetuity of our national confederacy, one and inseparable! Let history record your inalienable devotion to your country, which, under existing circumstances, when WOODWARD and LOWRIE are preaching and advocating the dissolution of our Union, demands your influence in support of CURTIN and AGNEW, the proper representatives of our national unity. Let the warm, patriotic impulses of your hearts be exercised this day in behalf of Freedom. You owe it to God, your country, and yourselves.

MR. GEO. E. GREEN, editor of the Vincennes (Ind.) Sun, while out gunning with a friend, in attempting to alight from the buggy in which they were riding, placed the butt of his double-barreled shot gun on the ground and put his left hand on the muzzle of the piece to aid him in alighting, when by some means the gun was discharged, shattering his hand in a most terrible manner.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES made his first appearance as a politician in the Massachusetts State Convention which renominated Gov. ANDREW.

Evening Penny Edition.

We will issue regularly an Evening Penny Edition of the DAILY COMMERCIAL. The first edition will appear at twelve o'clock, M, and others will follow as the news received from all quarters may require. We have made arrangements with resident correspondents—capable and reliable—at Washington City, Philadelphia and Cincinnati, who will telegraph "specials" daily in time to appear in the different editions. It is designed to make this a telegram edition, cheapening it so as to bring it within the means of every one. Although small in dimensions, it will contain really as much reading matter as is usually given in our two-cent cotemporaries, and its columns will be filled with short pithy articles—the cream of the news—from every quarter. It will be furnished to newsboys, and sold for—ONLY A CENT!

Marshal Kane.

Of Baltimore, it will be recollected, was one of the traitors imprisoned by the National Administration, to prevent their infliction of harm against the Government. The howls of indignation that burst from the Copperhead press, at this masterly and judicious act of the President, will not be forgotten. Indeed, those howls have been continued up to the present day.

In Marshal KANE's case, these rebel sympathisers have ceased to utter those dolorous strains; he has attached himself to the rebel army, and is now openly, what his brethren in the North are covertly, an enemy to his country, and her glorious Constitution and Laws.

Now we would like to have the opinion of all honorable men as to the relative turpitude of KANE, or the sneaking, snaky, cowardly acts of those traitors among us, who so richly have earned their significant title of "Copperhead." Is not KANE the least despicable? Is not a frank and avowed enemy less to be despised than the crawling serpents who luxuriate in their furtive and malignant attacks against their own country?

No Neutrals in War.

They that are not for their country when her existence is endangered, are its enemies, as entirely as those who are in arms against her.

We are enlisted in a campaign in which a decisive conflict is to be waged between the friends of Republican institutions, and the adherents of a new party springing up in our country, in sympathy with Southern rebels, and in favor of a Revolution of our Government!

Recent events, and all the indications of the day, prove the imminent peril we are exposed to in case of the success of the Copperheads, the new party referred to.

There is no doubt a preconcerted movement, in which LOUIS NAPOLEON, JEFF. DAVIS and our leading Northern traitors are in combination, to change the form of our Government, and to introduce a new rule, subversive of liberty and equality.

Will men knowingly and wilfully vote for the success of a party, who, after attaining power, will disfranchise every freeman, and subject him to a despotism?

Dialogue Between Two Democrats.

WOODWARD DEMOCRAT—I am in favor of putting down this rebellion by withdrawing our armies, and letting the South go in peace, if it can be done Constitutionally.

UNION DEMOCRAT—I am in favor of putting down the rebellion, and preserving the Union, by force of arms; and even if we have to spend our last dollar in annihilating every rebel in the country.

W. DEM.—I am opposed to suspending the writ of habeas corpus.

U. DEM.—Well, I am not, for it does not interfere with any person's liberties. except traitors and their sympathizers, and they have no rights under the Constitution.

W. DEM.—And I am opposed to ANDY CURTIN, old LINCOLN, and the whole d—d Abolition crew.

U. DEM.—So I understand are Jeff. Davis, Woodward himself, and every infernal traitor in the land.

W. DEM.—I would a thousand times rather the South should succeed in this war than that the country should be governed by the Republican party.

U. DEM.—Exactly! Then why don't you remove your cowardly, treasonable carcass to the South where it belongs? Why do you remain here among the loyal people who despise you? You are a villain; you would be an assassin, like your loving friends in the South, only you lack the courage! Go where you belong; you are not deserving the name of freeman! Don't stay here, belching forth treason, and claiming protection of our laws! Go to your Slave Master, and cringe, and fawn upon the hand that cracks the whip, and makes you do his bidding. Go—(but the WOODWARD Democrat, feeling it was getting too hot, moved off amid the jeers of the loyal crowd.

The Next Draft.

If there is no peace in a very short time, the probabilities are that a large conscription will take place. The necessity for the measure on the part of the Government is too apparent, If the rebellion is to be promptly and speedily suppressed, another million of troops are indispensable.

The material from which a draft will be made, it is probable, will embrace all able-bodied men under forty-five years of age. There is probably five millions from which to draw this conscription.

The elections now shortly to occur will afford a criterion by which to judge, in some measure, of the material that will be included in the ensuing enrolment.

The larger the force of the alien vote, the greater facility will be experienced in making the draft. Brave men, it is to be hoped, will all vote. Let them not skulk behind their alienage.

ONE of the curious questions which are debated very solemnly in the London Times and other English papers is what is called "the small bird question," viz: is it right to kill small birds; are they not, in fact, the destroyers of noxious insects, and in this way providential benefactors? A country parson, in a late number of the Times, complains that his plum buds were destroyed by the bullfinches, and his strawberries eaten up by the blackbirds; the raspberries were similarly treated by the thrushes and robins, and finally he has saved but half a crop of his best pears in consequence of the misconduct of these "little rascals," assisted by an arrival of titmouses. The parson wishes to know whether he can shoot or not.

IT is stated that green tarlatan is dyed with assenite of copper to such an extent as to make the handling, sewing or wearing of it dangerous. A gentleman writing to the London Times says four of his maid servants, while working upon articles of this fabric, were attacked with nausea, bleeding of the nose and irritation of the eyes. Tarlatan is likely to be tabooed.

ADDITIONS TO A REBEL MUSEUM.—The Richmond Enquirer announces the arrival in that city, from Charleston, of several ponderous shells, the heaviest weighing three hundred pounds, hurled from the Federal iron-clads. They have been deposited in the Confederate States Laboratory.

Admiral Wilkes is in Boston.

Peter Cooper believes that the Atlantic telegraph will be laid in 1864, and will be successful.

M. Thiers' coachman has committed suicide by hanging himself. This is the second that has chosen this method of quitting his service.

MISTAKE CORRECTED. — Our reporter named Judge AGNEW as having addressed the meeting at New Castle. The Judge was not present; he had not even followed Judge WOODWARD's example, to go sneaking around the outside of such meetings. Judge AGNEW has no secret treason to whisper to his followers.

WE invite the attention of the voters who hail from the old country, to the language of Judge LOWRIE against foreigners. Read and ponder over what this candidate said who now seeks your votes:

"It is well said that Turks are Mahommedans; that the Hindoos are indolent; that the Portuguese and IRISH people have a religious faith adverse to the development of mind. That the laborers are little removed from barbarism under the dominant rule of their clergy. The IRISH will not keep faith, and foreigners should not be placed in power in our country."

"WOUNDED AND KILLED."—It takes but little space in the columns of the daily papers; but, oh, what long household stories are every one of these strange names we read over and forget! "Killed and wounded!" Some eye reads the name, to whom it is dear as life, and some heart is struck or broken by the blow made by the name on the list. Every name in it is a lightning stroke to some heart, and breaks like thunder over some home, and falls like a long black shadow upon some hearthstone. When will such lists cease to fill the columns of the newspapers of the country?

REPUBLICANS, be on the alert to-day. Forsake your regular business, and give your time and influence to the cause of your country. Vote early. Get out carriages, and take to the polls the maimed, the sick, the halt, and the blind. Let every true patriot have the opportunity of casting his vote for CURTIN and AGNEW, and thereby attest his fealty to the Republic. No one should be permitted to lag behind, who is inclined to sustain the Government and overthrow the rebellion. Remember the importance of a single vote. One good, honest vote for CURTIN may elect him, and save Pennsylvania from a disgrace years cannot efface.

REPUBLICANS! LOYAL DEMOCRATS! your country calls, and it is your duty to obey. Your liberties are in danger; the emissaries of the South will endeavor, this day, to have Pennsylvania declare in favor of the traitors and renegades who have joined hands in the unholy attempt to subvert free speech and free labor, and establish, on this continent, a Confederacy based on slavery. Up, therefore, loyal Americans, and at them! Remember, your action this day is for weal or woe. Consider, the spirits of our Revolutionary fathers are watching and praying that justice and right may direct you. Sustain, through your votes and exertions, the representatives of your National Government, ANDREW G. CURTIN and DANIEL AGNEW, whose loyalty and patriotic integrity contrast so singularly with the treasonable designs of WOODWARD and LOWRIE.

DIED:

THOMPSON—At his residence, No. 25 St. Clair street, Pittsburgh, on the 12th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mr. JOHN THOMPSON, in the 49th year of his age.

His funeral will take place from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on Sixth street, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. His friends are cordially invited to attend.

Editor of Commercial:

DEAR SIR,—With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send by return mail, to all who wish it (free), a Recipe, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm, that will effectually remove, in ten days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all Impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful.

I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads, or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of Luxuriant Hair, Whiskers, or a Moustache, in less than thirty days.

All applications answered by return mail without charge. Respectfully yours,

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

More Serious.—Young King, son of Dr. R. A. King, of Anderson street, Allegheny, whose injury by a locomotive we mentioned a few days ago, had his leg entirely torn off, and so badly hurt internally as to leave very little hope of his recovery.

Drinking Houses to be Closed.—His Honor, Mayor Sawyer, has issued his proclamation to the effect that all drinking houses must be closed to-day. Every necessary arrangement will be made to preserve order, and every good citizen will consider himself a committee of one to assist in its preservation.

Making Citizens.—As is customary, previous to election, the Court of Common Pleas was busily engaged yesterday in making citizens. From what we saw of them, they were a very intelligent looking people, and intend, a great majority of them, to vote for Curtin for Governor.

Trover and Conversion.—Patrick McCormick yesterday brought suit before Alderman Donaldson against William Connelly, for the possession of a navy-size revolver, which McCormick claims as his property, the same having been stolen from him some time since. Connelly claims to have bought the pistol. A decision will be given to-morrow.

Diocesan Missions.—At the recent Western Convocation of the Episcopal Church, at Meadville, the following clergymen were appointed to bring the subject of Diocesan Missions more distinctly before the laity: Rev. E. M. Van Deusen, D. D., for the Mountain District; Rev. John F. Spaulding, for the Pittsburgh District; Rev. M. Byllesby, for the Allegheny District; Rev. Robert B. Peet, for the Monongahela District, and Rev. G. W. Mayer, for the Erie District.

Highway Robbery.—Officer Pender, of Mayor Sawyers police, last night arrested a man by the name of Robert Gillespie, who is charged with having, on the night of the 9th inst., knocked down and robbed of a pocket-book containing forty dollars in cash, a man by the name of Geo. M. Norton, while passing through the Seventh ward, of this city. Upon hearing the testimony, his Honor finally committed him to jail to await his trial, at the first sitting of the Criminal Court.

Big Meeting in the Sixth Ward.—Notwithstanding the immense turnout in Allegheny city last night, our Union friends of the Sixth ward held a very large meeting at the head of Wylie street, at which a number of patriotic citizens spoke, cheering and encouraging our brethren to stand firm in the contest of to-day. We regret that our time was so taken up that we were unable to obtain the organization, or the names of the speakers, but we are informed that it was most enthusiastic. The meeting did not break up until a late hour.

We have been requested to state that a meeting will be held at the Sanitary Rooms, on Fourth near Market street, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., at two o'clock, at which time all of the ladies of this city and vicinity, who feel an interest in the proposed monument fair, to be held in Chicago, on the 27th, and who feel its object to be praiseworthy and benevolent, are desired to be in attendance. The good cause deserves a large representation at this meeting of the fair and patriotic ladies of this city and suburbs.

Return of the Neptune.—The members of the Neptune Fire Company returned to the city, on Saturday evening, having had a very pleasant time at the Detroit trial. They were also successful in carrying off two prizes, the first being the first prize for a second class steamer and the second being the prize of $200, for having traveled the greatest distance to the trial. The committee would not allow them to enter as a first class engine on account of their weight, but a first class engine from Buffalo that carried away the principal prize only threw water seven feet further than the Neptune.

A Farmer's or Steamboat Lamp.—We were yesterday shown a lamp, or lantern, on a new principle, intended for the use of steamboats or farmers. It is fastened to the carbon oil, the globe of the lantern acting as a chimney. A circular piece is taken out of the globe, and in its place is inserted a reflector. The globe is surrounded by wire fenders, to prevent breakage. The whole arrangement is very tastefully got up, and will no doubt take precedence over all other kinds now in use. It is known as Clark's patent, and is manufactured and sold by Mr. Wm. N. Ogden, on Market St., below Fourth, who is the sole agent for it.

Johnstown Convention.—One of the incidents of the Mass Meeting at Johnstown, on Saturday last, was a cowardly assault made on an innocent man, about 9 o'clock in the evening. Some half dozen copperheads, indignant at Major Onslow for some remarks made in his speech, concluded to punish him. Carrying out this idea, they waited until they supposed they had interrupted him on his way up to the Scott House. A wounded soldier, having the use of but one arm, Mr. Erwin, was the recipient of a severe blow on the head, intended for Onslow. The cowards in the dark made a mistake, which they seemed to regret, but which nevertheless proved them to be treacherous assassins.

Episcopal Church in Sewickley.—Saturday last a number of persons assembled in Sewickley to lay the corner stone of a building devoted to church purposes. The Rev. Dr. Page, of Allegheny, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Preston, Revs. Messrs. Ten Broeck, Swope, Edmunds and Tschudy, of Pittsburgh, and the minister officiating at Sewickley. There were deposited in the corner stone a bible, a book of common prayer, a register of the Bishop Bowman Institute, a list of the contributors to the fund for the erection of the building, and a history of the growth of the enterprise. The address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Page, and after the singing of the "Gloria in Excelsis" and the benediction, the assemblage was dispersed.

Return of Ettie Henderson.—This accomplished actress has just returned from Leavenworth City, Kansas, where she performed one of her very best engagements ever known in that place. We saw the lady upon the street on Saturday, and must say that we believe her western trip has agreed with her very much, for we never saw her looking better. Ettie Henderson's engagement was for two weeks in Lawrenceburth, but such was the popularity into which she grew, that the management insisted upon another twelve nights. Previous to Ettie's departure, a grand complimentary benefit was given her—tendered by the leading citizens of the place. From all accounts we have seen, the occasion must have been very flattering to the lady, the Theatre being full to overflowing.

Important Railroad Case.—In the Court of Common Pleas on Monday, before Judges Sterret and Stowe, the application for an injunction to restrain the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company from the prosecution of the construction of their tunnel through the city, came up for argument. John Quinn, Esq., the plaintiff, alleged that the company had infringed on his property in the prosecution of their work so as to do him great injury, and asked that they be restrained in their work until restitution was made. John H. Hampton, Esq., for the railroad company, exhibited the contract of the company with the proper authorities, and the basis for the amount of damages to be received by each. Mr. Quinn's property is mostly "made ground," and in the running of the company's line a portion of it fell in. For this additional damage he seeks redress. From the statements of both parties, they will replace the condition of the property that may be disturbed by them in the building of the tunnel.

Mr. Quinn's damages, assessed and paid him, were $175, but believing that he was still further damaged by the falling in of a portion of his ground, he desires further compensation. The case was being argued at noon by John Barton, Esq., for the plaintiff, and by Mr. Hampton for the railroad company. We do not desire to anticipate the decision of the Court, but believe the railroad company will receive a favorable decision.

Union Meeting at Etna.

An enthusiastic Union meeting was held on Saturday evening at Etna, for the purpose of counteracting any evil effects that might have ensued from the "Commodore"-Kountz-Copperhead demonstration of the night before. The Copperheads had a meeting on Friday evening, at which the grammatical (?) and veracious "Commodore made himself painfully prominent. About fifty "roughs" from Lawrenceville, villainous with bad whisky and infinitely worse principles, were in attendance, for the avowed purpose of "cleaning out" any Curtin men who might be present. The amount of their "cleaning out" was a cowardly assault en masse upon 'Esquire Graham, a respectable citizen, because, in his official capacity, he attempted to preserve the peace by protecting a soldier who had injudiciously avowed his preference for Andrew G. Curtin. As customary with the Woodward Democratic party, they do not allow soldiers to hurrah for Curtin. The 'Squire being a muscular man, without the fear of Copperheads before his eyes, succeeded in very forcibly grounding two or three of his assailants, and then quietly took refuge in the post office, barring the door behind him.

The Union meeting of Saturday was gotten up as a reply to the "copper" meeting of the night before. The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers: President, Lieut. A. G. Lloyd. Vice President, Jno. Smith. Secretary, J. K. Butterfield. On taking the chair, Mr. Lloyd remarked that he had resided in Etna nearly twenty-seven years, but not until last night had he witnessed the spectacle of a mob of semi-traitors assembled in this town, with the avowed purpose of insulting and maltreating loyal men. At all the Union meetings heretofore held in Sharpsburg and Etna, copperheads have been present, and, as if in defiance, have openly hurrahed for their candidates with impunity. At one meeting in particular, a copperhead near the stand continually interrupted the speaker with insulting remarks and yet he was not in any way molested. And what especially aggravated the outrages of Friday night, in which a respectable citizen was assaulted, and the citizens' windows smashed in, was the fact that Kountz had invited any soldier present to express his preferences, and to show his sincerity—waited for a response. When the response came, "Hurrah for Curtin!" giving the lie to the quondam Commodore's assertions, the soldier who uttered it was assaulted.

At the conclusion of the gentleman's remarks Mr. Moffat was introduced and delivered an effective and eloquent address, fraught with scathing rebukes to the shameless effrontery of a Commodore who could visit a place where he supposed himself unknown, and utter slanders against the Government whose righteous chastisements he had invoked by his rascality and disobedience. The sometime Commodore was handled without gloves. He will not come to Etna soon again. If he does, he will be met with unpleasant interrogatories as to General Grant and his mode of ironing Commodores.

Mr. Moffat was followed by Rev. J. E. M'Gaw, whose brief but energetic and eloquent speech elicited frequent and long-continued shouts of applause.

The meeting was adjourned by three cheers for the Union candidates, Curtin and Agnew, and three intensely guttural groans for copperheads!

THE UNION MEN OUT IN THEIR STRENGTH.

ALLEGHENY CITY GOOD FOR 2,000 MAJORITY.

The Union people of this city who did not witness the grand torchlight procession of our Allegheny neighbors last night missed the grandest demonstration of the campaign. We have flattered ourselves heretofore that Pittsburgh alone could make a turn-out, but we are free to confess, after the exhibition of last night, that our loyal sister city can surpass us. The wide and spacious streets of Allegheny were filled from an early hour in the evening with a dense mass of the beauty of the county as well as its manhood. We do not wish to flatter the managers of the procession, but truth compels us to say that their utmost anticipations must have been realized. The whole city of Allegheny, loyal as it is to the core, was brilliant with light throughout the entire route of the procession, and the demonstrations of applause from the fair, beautiful women who thronged the balconies indicated in the most unmistakable manner where their hearts, as well as those of their brave and loyal protectors, are in the present campaign.

THE PROCESSION.

About eight o'clock, the procession formed in the Diamond, and proceeded up Ohio street, headed by the Hope Steam Engine Company. And here we would remark we have never seen a more universal feeling for a principle than was demonstrated by our firemen last night. All the firemen of Allegheny turned out last night, and made each of them a handsome display. The Columbia Hook and Ladder Company made an elegant display. But we cannot do justice to the procession, save by remarking that it by far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its projectors.

Organization of the Meeting.

On arriving on the North Common, the vast assemblage was called to order by Mr. Coffin, who nominated the following officers:

PRESIDENT,
REV. JOHN C. STEELE.

VICE PRESIDENTS.

1st Ward—Gen. Wm. Robinson, Jr., Maxwell Cornelius, Jno. F. Jennings and Josiah King.
2d Ward—Geo. Hutchinson, H. A. Merrick, Jas. Munden and Thomas Plummer.
3d Ward—Jas. Park, Jr., Cr. James B. Herron, Thomas Miller, William Brough, Col. George Gerst, Charles Goettman, Frederick Alvatis and Chas. Schleeper.
4th Ward—Hon. Thomas M. Howe, William M. Herron, John Meskimen, I. J. McDermont, Rev. Alfred Kreder, Jacob S. Newmeyer, Edwin Miles and Rev. Wm. Johannsen.
Manchester Borough—William S. Spratt, Capt. John Wolf, Abraham Patterson, and Capt. Jas. Miller.

SECRETARIES.

1st Ward, Henry Irwin.
2d " William Anderson.
3d " L. Osgood and John Myers.
4th " F. McNally and Emory Gleason.
Manchester.—Richard McDonough.
Duquesne Borough.—Hiram K. Semple.

SPEAKERS.

Among the distinguished speakers who occupied the stand were John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., Dr. Heichhold, of the United States Army, Hon. David Barclay, Col. William Blakely, Maj. Allison and others.

On taking the chair the Rev. Mr. Steele made one of the most eloquent and appropriate speeches that it has been our pleasure to hear during the campaign. He is a Kentuckian, educated, bred and born, and his remarks were listened to with the greatest attention.

He then read a letter from Gen. Franz Sigel, stating the that hero was with the people in this campaign, and regretting his inability to be present,

ALLEGHENY CITY, Oct. 7, 1863.

Major General F. Sigel:

DEAR SIR—At a joint meeting of the Union Vigilance Committees the undersigned were appointed a committee to invite you to address the friends of Governor Curtin, and citizens generally of Allegheny City and vicinity, on Friday evening, the 9th inst., or at any other time that may suit your convenience.

With sentiments of high regard, we are, very respectfully, your obedient servants,

JOHN F. JENNINGS,
JOHN B. SCHEIFF, } Committee.
GEORGE GERST,

PITTSBURGH, Oct, 9, 1863.

John F. Jennings, John B. Sheriff, and George Gerst, Members of the Union Vigilance Committee, Allegheny City:

GENTLEMEN: I have received your letter of invitation to address the "friends of Governor Curtin, and the citizens generally of Allegheny city and vicinity," on Friday next, and confess that I am very sorry not to be able to comply with your wishes. But at the same time I request you to tell the "friends of Governor Curtin and the citizens generally," and the German citizens in particular, that I hope to see the true friends and supporters of the Union victorious on the 13th day of October. I hope they will stand firm in the second battle of Gettysburg and not only repulse the Copperheads and their camp followers, but defeat them by an overwhelming majority. Let Governor Curtin, who stood firm during the invasion, be "kindly remembered" by the people of the Keystone State, and inaugurated for the next term.

I am, gentlemen, truly and
Respectfully yours,
F. SIGEL.

Mr. Allison, of Beaver, then addressed the meeting in a well conceived speech, and was succeeded by John M. Kilpatrick, Esq., who was speaking when we left the grounds.

A second stand was improvised, at which Dr. Heichhold, Colonel Blakely and others delivered most eloquent and appropriate speeches.

"BLUFFING AND LYING."—In an article in the daily Post, under the above caption, occurs the following sentences.

"The general instructions to the Federal editors in the campaign seems to have been,
1st. Brag and bluff without ceasing.
6th. Don't mind the charge of lying.
7th. Pitch conscience to the devil.
8th. Lie through thick and thin."

In another article, they berate the daily Dispatch, for intimating that the Democratic gathering on Allegheny common on Wednesday last, was a failure as to the number represented it; and also, for estimating the number of people at the Sigel reception at 20,000.

Now I wish to call the attention of your readers and the public, to another article in the same paper, to show that they are not guilty of any scrupulous in taking the advice which they say has been given to the Federal editor.

In giving an account of the Democratic gathering at Burgettstown, the Post says: "The delegation from Finley township numbered over fourteen hundred, preceded by a party of young ladies on horseback." Now, I have taken the trouble to examine the returns of the last Governor's election, and find that the whole number of votes in that township did not exceed two hundred and twenty, of which the Democrats had less than one hundred and fifty. If the Post can cypher out a delegation of fourteen hundred, where there are not one hundred and fifty Democratic voters, then we think they ought not to find fault at a small exaggeration in the Federal papers. Seriously, this is only one of a thousand of the misrepresentations of the Confederate papers in the North, and yet the Post has the unblushing impudence to complain of the bluffing and lying of the Federal papers.

The decision of the Umpire, Mr. Culbertson, gave universal satisfaction. SPECTATOR.

More Speaking.—A short distance from the principal speakers' stand last night, in the East Commons, another was improvised on the spur of the moment, to accommodate other speakers to whom those of the immense audience who were unable to obtain positions near the main stand were desirous to listen. Among those who spoke were Dr. Heichhold, Col. Wm. Barclay and others, who kept their audience eager and willing listeners, until a very late hour.

Police Matters.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Joseph Anderson was yesterday arrested, upon a warrant issued by Alderman Donaldson, charged upon oath of Mary Haley with having struck her son James, aged six years, with a club. He was held to answer in the sum of $300.

Gone to Wheeling.—Professor Anderson left this morning for Wheeling, where he will play one night, and after the election return to this place.

"Daily Commercial" Job Printing Office.—Orders for every style of Book and Job printing promptly and neatly executed, from a visiting card up to a mammoth poster. The most rapid and improved steam presses are used in the execution of the work.

PITTSBURGH GENERAL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
Tuesday, October 13.

BUSINESS was in a great measure suspended yesterday, and will no doubt, partake of the same character to-day, the election which takes place to-day, having monopolized the attention of both buyers and sellers. When you inquire about business, the answer is, wait until after the election; so waiting is the order of the day. The demand for the leading articles was entirely local, prices being entirely unchanged—in fact, we do not look for business to open before the last of the week. The excitement in regard to the election is steadily increasing, and prices were unchanged. We omit quotations.

PITTSBURGH OIL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
Tuesday, October 13.

Business was dull, buyers manifesting no disposition to operate, the rates demanded for oil being entirely above their views. The stock in first hands is very limited, with light receipts. One thing is very certain, the rates in this market are too high as compared with those of other cities, the best market just now being Oil City and at the wells where the articles are produced. Matters will probably brighten up after the election. The exports were as follows:

To New York.—Refined, 701 bbls.
To Philadelphia.—Benzole, 77 bbls.; Crude, 136 bbls.
Imports.—Per A. V. R. R.—Refined, 481; Crude, 111 bbls. Per Allegheny River, 390 bbls.

Of Crude and Refined we omit quotations, as they are too unsettled to quote with any degree of correctness. At the present asking rates nobody will look at them.

PHILADELPHIA COTTON MARKET.—Cotton.—The market has been excited and prices have gone up 6@8c ₱ lb since the close of last week, with sales of 1200@1400 bales to note at from 50@60c for low grade, up to 85@92½c for middling and good middling quality, cash, including a prize cargo of 806 bales sold by auction, mostly at about 90c ₱ lb. At the close holders are firm at the advance, but the demand is very light.

PHILADELPHIA WOOL MARKET.—The market is excited and more active, with a good demand to go east at an advance on previous sales, and a very light stock to operate in. Supplies from the interior come in slowly. Sales of about 200,000 lbs are reported at 70@78c for low grade medium and fine fleece and tub, which prices are now generally refused.

NEW ORLEANS.—The Times of the 26th ult. says: We have nothing to report in stocks or bonds. Insurance scrip commands 30@35c ₱ dollar, according to the date. Gas Light Company and City Railroad shares have been in demand, and $122 ₱ share has been offered for the former and $118 per share for the laiter. The notes of the Bank of Louisiana rule at 63@65c ₱ dollar; Merchants' Bank notes range at 45@47½, and Crescent City Bank at 55@57½ ₱ dollar.

PHILADELPHIA METAL MARKET.—The market continues buoyant and excited, and most of the makers of Pig metal being sold up, the only sales we hear of are 300 tons gray forge at $33 cash, and 600 tons hot blast charcoal at $40, 4 mos. Cold blast is worth $50 ₱ ton, and Anthracite $36 for No. 1 and $35 for No. 2 cash, and little or none offering. Scotch Pig is wanted and very scarce at $38. Of manufactured the sales are light and prices very firm, most of the mills being busy with old orders, and not disposed to contract except at an advance of $3@5 ₱ ton.

ST. LOUIS TOBACCO MARKET.—Market continues active. Prices are unchanged, but the feeling is somewhat better for buyers with a break at both warehouses of 94 hhds, including 1 hhd scraps, at $2 70; 2 do factory lugs at $6 10@6 85; 6 do planters' do at $7@10; 12 do common shipping leaf at $10 10@14 25; 11 do medium do at $14 60@17; 19 do good do at $17 85@21; 7 do medium manufacturing leaf at $19 40@23 75; 2 do good do do at $30 25@32; 34 do bids rejected; 2 bxs do do.

[From the Whig, 8th inst.]

RICHMOND MARKET.—The market is well supplied with Potatoes, now selling at 50c per quart; $2 half peck for Sweet; $1 50 for Irish. Tomatoes 50c per quart; Peas 75c; Cranberries $3 per quart. Butter $40@45 ₱ lb; Eggs 25@2 50 ₱ doz; Bacon $2 50@2 75 ₱ lb; Mackerel $1 apiece; Sausage $1 50 ₱ lb; Sugar $2 50@2 85; Flour $10@45, superfine; Corn Meal $10 ₱ bush, scarce. Market destitute of hay, corn, fodder, &c.

NEW YORK WOOL MARKET.—Wool has continued in lively demand for consumption and speculation, and the market is decidedly firmer, both for native fleece and foreign descriptions, since the price of gold has been established on the former during the week. The sales foot up largely as follows: 470,000 lb native fleeces at 62@80c for ¼ to full blood Merino and choice Saxony, chiefly at 65@75c; 150,000 lb Lamb's super extra, 58@72c, mainly at 65@70c; 55 lb California, at 35c, for coarse, and 27@42c for Fall clip; 100 do Spanish at 33½c; 200 do Cordova at 36½c; 900 Cape at 30@40c chiefly at 36@38c; 150 do East India at 30@50c, as to quality; 40 do Smyrna at 50c; 600 do African and Provence at 22@30c; 70 do unwashed Lisbon, 1,280 do unwashed and washed African, and 1,350 do Mestiza, on private terms. The stock of foreign in first hands is now greatly reduced, and the supply of domestic is equally small.

The Leading Oil Markets.

PHILADELPHIA.—The market during the past week ruled weak, and prices have further declined. Crude opened dull, with sales at 36c, closing heavy at 35c. Refined, in bond, has suffered a heavier fall, and is now selling at 52@55c, as to quality. Refined free, of which there is but a small stock, has nevertheless declined, and we quote to-day nominally 62½@66c as to quality. In Benzine, there is nothing doing; refined and double refined quofed at 25@27c. The following are the receipts of crude and refined Petroleum at this port during the past week: Crude, 2,235 bbls; Refined, 1,060 bbls.

NEW YORK.—We have advices to October 10th, 3 o'clock, p. m., the market closes very heavy; the foreign advices continue to be of a very unsatisfactory character, and holders here are only too anxious to realize. Crude dull at 34 to 34½c. Refined, in bond, inactive at 53@54c., as to quality. Refined, free, sold at from 62@63c., as to quality and quantity.

Later, 5 o'clock, p. m.—Crude at 34c. Refined, in bond, at 52 to 53c. Refined, free, at 62@64c.

BOSTON.—We have advices to October 10th, 2 o'clock, p. m.—Crude dull, and prices nominal at 36@37½c. Refined, in bond, 53@58c. Refined, free, at 63@67½c. Kerosene at 70c.

BALTIMORE.—We have advices to October 10, o'clock, p. m.—Crude dull and prices lower; we quote nominal 36 to 37½c. Refined in bond, at 55@57½c., and free at 65@67½c. The stock of all kinds very much reduced.

Cincinnati Markets.—October 10.

Flour—There is increased firmness in the market, but the demand is local, there being nothing for export, owing to the high rates of freight and want of transportation. We quote trade brands at $5 75@6 25. Nothing done in the lower grades. 200 bbls family sold at $6.

Whisky—The market was excited under the news from New York, and prices advanced 2c., with sales of 600 bbls at 55@55½c., the latter rate for wagon.

Groceries—The market is buoyant and rather unsettled. Sugar is held ¼c higher, and Coffee 1c.

Wheat—There is a continued good demand from the local and inferior millers, and also some inquiry from shippers, and, with only moderate offerings, prices were higher, closing firm at $1 10@1 12 for the best grades of Red, and $1 27@1 30 for Kentucky White. The sales reported were: 1,500 bushels Kentucky White at $1 25, in store; 700 do prime do do at $1 30, delivered; 1,000 do choice do do at $1 30, on landing; 1,700 do choice Red at $1 12; 1,150 do prime do at $1 10, and 300 do choice do at $1 13, on landing.

Corn—The market is firmer to-day, under the advices from Chicago, and there was less disposition to sell, but we have no change to report in prices, and continue to quote ear at 88c, in bulk, at the lower depots. Shelled is saleable at 85c, in bulk.

Oats—The market was dull in the morning, and prices declined to 66@67c, in bulk, with sales of 2,100 bushels at the inside figure, but there was a firmer feeling at the close, and they were generally held 1@2c higher. About 30,000 bus. were sold for future delivery, but the prices paid were not made public.

Rye—There is but a limited amount arriving, and prices are merely nominal. Prime samples could be sold at $1 05.

Barley—Prime samples of Spring and Fall are held at $1 40@1 50, but the outside rates offered are $1 35@1 45.

Baltimore Market—Oct 10.

Coffee—The stock of Rio is much reduced, and sales are slow, owing to the extreme views of buyers. Common to fine grades we now quote at 31½@34c ₱ lb. There is no supply of other descriptions.

Flour—Business on 'Change was confined to small lots of Howard street super at $5 87½@6, and extra do. at $6 87½@7 per bbl. The market closed very firm in view of the short supply of all grades.

Grain—At the Corn Exchange this morning the offerings embraced 12,000 bushels Wheat, 3,500 do. Corn, and 4,5000 do. Oats. The high grades of Wheat were in active demand, but business in white was restricted in consequence of the spare receipts. Sales comprised 4,506 bushels very inferior to fair Southern white at $1 25@$1 75 cents; 2,000 bushels good to prime do at $1 80@$1 85c; 3,500 bushels damaged to ordinary Southern red at $1 25@$1 48c, and 6,000 bushels very fair to choice do. at $1 53@$1 60, two or three small lots bringing the latter price. Transactions in Corn were moderate at previous prices. Sales of 2,500 bushels damaged to prime white at $1 00@$1 03c, and 1,000 bushels prime yellow in small lots at $1 05@$1 06c. Oats brought an advance of 1 to 2 c; 7,000 bushels Maryland selling at 63@67c, measure as to condition. Nothing was done in Rye. Maryland nominal at $1 10@$1 15.

Molasses—Trade demand moderate. Prices nominally unchanged, viz: Clayed Cuba 46@50c Muscovado 52@54c; English Island 46@63c, and Porto Rico do 60@65 ₱ gallon.

Provisions—The advance in gold has materially strengthened this branch of trade, though we have very little improvement to note in the general demand. New Mess Pork we quote at $15@15 25, and old do at $13@$13 25. Bacon, shoulder at 6½c; Sides 6¾@7c; plain Hams at 10@10½c outside figure for canvassed, and sugar cured and fancy do, at 12½@14c. Lard—Western in bbls and tierces 11¼@11¾c, and Baltimore refined at 13¾ ₱ lb. No Bulk Meat offered.

The Mammoth Northwestern Fair --What is Done and What is yet to do--Do our Citizens Realize its Importance?

The suggestion has been made from the highest quarters, that our citizens do not appreciate the character, merits and claims of the great fair to be held in Chicago, the last week in October and the first week in November, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers in hospitals and in the field. All that science, art, skill and ingenuity can devise and execute, are in active preparation for this fair. It is designed to be commensurate with the gigantic growth and prosperity of our city and the Northwest. It is intended to be a mighty, united uprising of the people of the Northwest in their power and gratitude, to yield humble tribute to the glorious deeds of our brave western army and to pour into their hospitals every comfort they need, bind up, as far as possible, every wound, and soothe every pain. In order to do this, busy hands are at work throughout the Northwest in making fancy and useful articles of the most elegant description; manufacturers at home and abroad are preparing and donating their choicest specimens of skill.

Pittsburgh holds out the hand of greeting, and is preparing to send a choice assortment of her manufactures, including an excellent breech-loading steel cannon, cut glass, plows, stoves, nails, carbon oil, &c. Boston, among other things, sends a box of East Indian curiosities. New York her gems of art, publications, rare bijous, &c. Detroit, Milwaukee, in fact all Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, most of Iowa and Minnesota are for us. Chicago must look to her laurels, or she will fall behind in the race. Poets are writing for us, artists painting for us, fair hands working for us, celebrities in politics, science and morals to lecture for us. Balatka, whose name is a tower of strength in the musical world, generously volunteers his services to get up a rare concert for us. Children, 200 strong, are drilling and warbling to prepare for us a treat of song and tableaux. An unrivalled artist in the tableaux line is to entertain us with a succession of visions of beauty one evening. The ladies of Chicago have had large meetings to mature plans of action, and will shrink from no work that can benefit our suffering soldiers. They propose to canvass our entire city, and ask every man and woman to join us in this holy work. It rests with our citizens to make this duty painful or pleasant. It must be done in any event. Courteous reception, liberal response, and thanks returned to those who are willing to assume this labor, in order to give all the privilege of uniting in this cause, will make the duty a pleasure. Shall not this be done, and the call upon our citizens in the name of humanity and patriotism to do this.

Where would have been their property, business houses, churches, school houses, wives, children, liberty, country, but for our army? We do not beg as a charity, we claim as a right, a good portion of what they have saved and earned for you. It belongs to them. By sweat, blood, agony, death, mourning, bereaved hearts that mourn the honored dead, they have earned it. Could the veil be lifted, and the hospital wards, containing tens of thousands of our brave volunteers—pining, crippled, maimed—pass in review before you, or could we panorama the battle fields of Shiloh, Gettysburg and Chattanooga, and acres of graves around them, covering the remains of those who have died that we might live, then would every man and woman in the community rise, and joyfully greet the canvassers. The rich man, out of his abundance, would pay part of his debt to our brave boys, and give freely of gold for blood, limbs and life. All would pay the soldier's claims, as honest debts. Even the poor man would buy a part in this sacred cause, and give his dime, if he went without a night's lodging, as the boys do continually. We might appeal to the pride of Chicago and the Northwest. We might tell her manufacturers, artists and agents, that to be unknown in the great Northwestern Fair, would be a serious loss of reputation and money, but we feel that is not necessary. Do what we may, interest in this fair, or the reverse, will be considered a test of loyalty. Our Divine Master uttered heavenly truth, when He said, "A tree is known by its fruits." His apostle testified the same, when he said, "Faith without works is dead." Our Western boys have gained many victories, done much fighting. Our Western fair shall eclipse Boston and all others—$50,000 profits they say. Shall we say less? We must win the prize. We can—we will.

IMPORTANT TO
Railway Companies, Mill Owners, &c.
We have erected and have in operation near this city an extensive Labratory for the manufacture of LUBRICATING AND PAINT OIL,
by a new and ingenuous scientific process—and now offer and commend to public notice and patronage three grades: A, B and C, respectively of 1st, 2d and 3d quality LUBRICATING OIL. Wherever these lubricators have been tested they have been pronounced greatly superior to any of the preparation lately offered in the market. The A, or best quality is designed to take the place of the best Sperm Oil, and for use on cotton, woolen or other fine machinery. The B, or second quality for Railways and other like machinery, and the C, or third quality for heavy and course gearing, &c.
The PAINT OIL has been tested by numerous painters in this city, and found to be a Capital Substitute for Boiled Flax-seed Oil.
Indeed, many painters give it a decided preference. These OILS are now extensively manufactured at our
EUREKA LUBRIC OIL WORKS,
As the process is scientific and uniform, customers can rely on the uniform excellence of these economic equivalents of Sperm and Flax-seed Oil. A trial and test is confidently invited.

MEDICAL.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

HEAR THE WITNESSES.

WORTHLESS and pernicious articles are so often bolstered up in the advertising columns of the press by fabricated letters that the proprietors of

HOSTETTER'S BITTTERS

Rarely give quotations from their business correspondence, lest the GENUINE OPINIONS of those who use and appreciate a GENUINE ARTICLE, should be confounded by the unthinking with the FULSOME RIGMAROLE put into the mouths of MEN OF STRAW by unscrupulous empirics and charlatans, whose double object is to SELL both their trash and the PUBLIC.

Believing, however, that FACTS IMPORTANT TO THE HEALTH AND COMFORT OF THE PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED AT ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date, to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

It may be thought, perhaps, that a preparation like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which has long been a STANDARD TONIC throughout the WESTERN HEMISPHERE, and is rapidly becoming a staple of trade at the antipopes, speaks for itself in stronger tones than private eulogium can speak for it. This is true; but the phases of disease are almost innumerable, and every day new instances of the success of the Bitters, either as a PREVENTIVE or a CURE, come to the knowledge of the proprietors through the mails. Some of these are of immediate interest to thousands placed in precisely the same circumstances as the parties who have been PROTECTED and RELIEVED, and therefore it seems almost an act of duty to put them on record.

The immense increase in the sale of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things," only "HOLDS FAST to that which is GOOD." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "flung like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

Every dose administered of a useless or deleterious nostrum helps to disabuse the public mind of the impressions it may have received from the flourish of trumpets with which the deception or quackery was announced; while, on the contrary, every bottle sold of a purely valuable medicine secures the permanent custom of the purchaser, and makes him an ADVERTISER OF ITS MERITS among his friends. It is thus that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have obtained their unparalled popularity. The Press, indeed, has made the GREAT STOMACHIC widely known, but it is the uniformly successful results of PERSONAL EXPERIMENT that have rendered its HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE through out the length and breadth of the land, and the main reliance of the TRAVELER, the VOYAGER, the MINER and the PIONEER.

During the Summer months, a pure, wholesome tonic, in which are also incorporated the properties of an anti-bilious and mild aperient agent, is especially needed. Such a preparation is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the surest preventative and cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, and nervous debility, ever placed within the reach of the community.

Against the depressing and sickening tendency of heat and miasma, it is a potent safeguard, and upon persons of feeble constitution and uncertain health, its renovating effects are most extraordinary.

READ REV W. B. LEE'S LETTER.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 28, 1863.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks and feel it due to you and the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a puff for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nostrums of the day, being parent of health to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and the ultimate healing of the most common infirmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the Spring. I was bilious, and suffering from indigestion and a general disorder of the mucous membrane, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, had no appetite and was much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your Bitters a week my vigor returned, the sallow complexion was all gone, I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of mental application, which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me. When I used your bitters I felt a change every day. These are facts. All inference must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours respectfully,
W. B. LEE,
Pastor of Green avenue Presbyterian Church.

READ E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER.
PROSPECT COTTAGE,
GEORGETOWN, D. C., April 2, 1863.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia, and nervous headaches recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica, I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a standard family cordial with us; and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,
E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

READ JOHN W. BRONOUGH'S LETTER.
NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Yards and Docks, Dec. 30, 1862.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.:
Gentlemen: About four years since, my attention was called to your celebrated Stomach Bitters, I being at the time a perfect martyr to dyspepsia in all of its terrific forms; indeed, I had not known for six years an uninterrupted night's sleep. I commenced the use of your Bitters, taking them according to your directions, except that the dose was reduced to one-half, and found myself much, very much benefitted by the first bottle; the second relieved me entirely; but I have ever since taken a dose in the morning, immediately on rising, finding it act as a tonic and appetizer of the most agreeable character. There is a peculiarity in the effect of your Bitters on me, which it may be well to state. If from any cause, I shall be suffering never so acutely with the headache, a dose of your Bitters relieves me in fifteen minutes. In conclusion, I say with all sincerity and truth, I would not be returned to the state of health in which your Bitters found me, and from which they have unquestionably relieved me, for all the money in the world.

I am, with great respect, your obd't servant,
JOHN W. BRONOUGH, Chief Clerk.

READ SAMUEL BYER'S LETTER.
NEW CONVALESCENT CAMP,
Near Alexander, Va., May 24, 1863.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Dear Sirs: Will you do me the favor to forward, by express, one-half dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of the same, as I am unable to procure your medicine here; and if I had a quantity, it could be sold readily, as it is known to be the best preparation in use for diseases having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it, should he be ever so robust and healthy: for it is not only a Restorative, but a Preventative, for almost all diseases a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicted with chronic indigestion, and no medicine has ever afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters ordered. Yours respectfully,
SAMUEL BYERS, Hospt.

RENSSELAERVILLE, July 7, 1864.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—Please send me some of your Bitters at your earliest convenience, as I have at present an extensive sale for them. I have no medicine of which I sell as much as your Bitters. I have kept them for two years last past. They have now begun to sell. They have performed some remarkable cures in Dyspepsia which have been of long standing, and from which they have acquired a reputation won by no other medicine in our market. I can send you certificates surpassing anything you ever published, if of any value to you, being anxious such a medicine should be introduced in every place. If persons were as well acquainted with it as I am, they would not be without it. Respectfully yours,
W. P. SWEET, Druggist,
